

while my wife and I are on the "do not call list", we still receive an average of two to three phone calls daily. if sanctions are eliminated my phone could be abused every hour by annoying and unwanted calls. Tying up the phone in an emergency makes 911 obsolete.